Introduction

Anuschka M. Wijngaarde (LLM) was born in the Netherlands and raised in Surinam and the Netherlands. After graduating from the Erasmus University of Rotterdam in the Netherlands, she came to Aruba to work for the Directorate of Taxes. As of November 1, 2013 she joined DC Tax Solutions as a Tax Advisor.

Experience

Anuschka started her career in the public sector where she acquired her extensive knowledge of Aruban tax law and related subjects. As a policy officer, she was involved in the modification of the outdated Aruban tax laws and tax (collecting) system. This modification project of modernisation and harmonisation with international tax standards finally led to the introduction of the dividend withholding tax and IPC regime, the General Tax legislation, the BBO and the new Tax Liability legislation. Anuschka also provided technical support to colleagues from the Tax Department. As an all-round tax inspector, she handled a broad range of disputed tax matters and acquired her experience in the litigation of tax appeal cases before the Tax Court. In the course of her career she developed a special affinity with Income Tax, Wage Tax and Social Security Premiums.

Curriculum Vitae

Anuschka moved to Aruba to work for the Aruban Tax Authorities directly after graduating with an LLM in Tax Law at the Erasmus University of Rotterdam, the Netherlands. She has worked as a policy officer at the Directorate of Taxes in the Legislative and Policy Making Department and as a tax inspector at the Inspectorate of Taxes. In November 2013, Anuschka started a new career as a Tax Advisor at the tax firm DC Tax Solutions.
